Similarly, student-on-student discriminatory harassment is prohibited, equally, and will not be tolerated.

Discriminatory harassment includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors or other verbal or physical conduct relating to an individual's gender, race, color, national origin, genetic information (GINA), religion, height, weight, marital status, handicap, age, or disability when:

- Submission to such conduct or communication is made either an explicit or implicit condition of utilizing or benefiting from the services, activities, or programs of the School District,
- Submission to, or rejection of, the conduct or communication is used as the basis for a decision to exclude, expel or limit the harassed student in the terms, conditions or privileges of the School District, or
- The harassment substantially interferes with the student's education, creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment, or otherwise adversely affects the student's educational opportunities.

If it relates to the Principal or Assistant Principal, the complaint should be filed with the Assistant Superintendent of Instruction or the Assistant Superintendent of Business:

The School District guarantees that a student reporting an incident(s) of discriminatory harassment will not suffer any form of reprisal.

In determining whether the alleged conduct constitutes discrimination or harassment, the totality of the circumstances, the nature of the harassment and the context in which the alleged incident(s) occurred will be investigated. The building Civil Rights Coordinator, or his/her designee, has the responsibility of investigating complaints of discriminatory harassment of students. In cases where the alleged harassment involves a member of the Board of Education, the School District will appoint outside legal counsel to investigate the complaint. The results of an investigation and any action taken thereon will be communicated to the complaining person.

The School District considers discriminatory harassment based on gender, race, color, national origin, genetic information (GINA), religion, height, weight, marital status, handicap, age, or disability to be a major offense, which will result in disciplinary action of the offender. Disciplinary action against a School District employee may include termination of employment. Disciplinary action against a student may include expulsion. Disciplinary action against a Board of Education member may range from Board of Education public censure to removal of the Board Member from an officer position he/she may hold.

Sexual harassment, may include, but is not limited to:

- Unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature

Examples:

- Unwelcome sexual advances
- Requests for sexual favors

- Other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature, such as sexual assault or acts of sexual violence

(OCR Dear Colleague Letter – April 4, 2011)

In addition, any form of retaliation against the complainant or witness is in itself a form of sexual harassment.
