

Title I Parents'/Guardians' Right to Know

The following school receives federal funds for Targeted Title I Part A programming:

- East Grand Rapids Middle School

As a parent of a student in a Targeted Title I school, you have the right to know the professional qualifications of the classroom teachers who instruct your student. Federal law allows you to ask for certain information about your student's classroom teachers, and requires the school to give you this information in a timely manner. Specifically, you have the right to ask for the following information about each of your student's classroom teachers:

- Whether the teacher meets the state qualifications and licensing criteria for the grades and subjects he or she teaches.
- Whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or provisional status because of special circumstances.
- Whether the teacher has any advanced degrees and the field of discipline of the teacher's certification or degree.

If at any time your student has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher(s) that is not highly qualified, then you will be notified by the school.
